(), Maya's son! because we roam the earth, Moun we upon these strings; we make n So many woes we see in many lands, So many streaming eyes and wringing hands. Yet mock we while we wail, for could they This life they c'ing to is but empty show; 'Twere all as well to bid a cloud to stand, Or hold a running river with the hand.

But thou that art to save, thine hour is nigh! The sad world waiteth in its misery. The blind world stumbleth on its round o Wander thon, too, O Prince, thy rest to find Leave love for love of lovers, for woe's sake Quit state of sorrow, and deliverance make.

So sigh we, passing o'er the silver strings, To thee who know's: not yet of earthly things So say we; mocking, as we pass away, These lovely shmlows wherewith thou dos

-EDWIN ARNOLD, in "The Light of Asia."

SPEECH

HON. J. R. CHALMERS. Delivered at Corinth, Oct. 15, 1879.

From the New York World.] by the extra session of Congress and their true significance, sectional and national. are so fond of talking, and his speech establishes in the clearest imaginable manner the Rio Grande Island of the Senate Committee.

When we examine the fourteenth amendsentation it uses the word "persons;" when it denounces a penalty for the exclusion of voters it uses the words "citizens." All are to be enumerated, hence the Chinaman in California and the foreigner in Rhode Island are enumerated to swell the basis of their representation. All persons born in fresh reconstruction laws and further envoting must be reduced in representation in proportion to the number excluded, California excludes the Chinaman gallant old Democratic party, and it should be remembered by every foreign-born citizen in the Union. By the amendments to the Constitution and the reconstruction the South would be forever suppressed.

But this was not sufficient.

cluding the counting of the votes.

NORTH.

better than an hour's argument could de- election is over. monstrate whether this is a Northern or a Southern question. These are the laws we sought to repeal. The ingenuity of man LATE THE QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS. could scarcely devise a system which in the hands of unscrupulous partisans would e better calculated to destroy the freedom of elections, and his Satanic Majesty could not furnish an agent better fitted to execute them than John I. Davenport, of New York, who boasted in his correspondence with Attorney-General Devens that he robbed CORINTH, MISS., Oct. 14, 1879. more than ten thousand foreign-born citizens of their naturalization pa-General Chalmers delivered here to-night a most important speech on the issues raised laws, including the law authorizing the use of the army to keep the peace General Chalmers is a recognized leader of at the polls, is now the great issue between the "solid South" about which the stalwarts the parties. The Republican party answer our demand for their repeal by yelling secession and Confederate brigadiers in Conthe absolute loyalty of the solid South to gress. They pretend that these laws are the absolute loyarty of the Union, not as they the Constitution and the Union, not as they from seizing the Government by fraud and Chalmers for a Union soldier devoted "to violence in Southern elections in 1880. A the preservation of the Union and not to the destruction of the States" as the Democratic Presidential candidate in 1880 awas never attempted to be practised on the credulity of a free people. As the laws now stand the States of the South can, if they choose, select their Presidential the Southern people, from the Potomac to the Rio Grande. General Chalmers began his speech by pointing at the strange and ominous parallel between the steps through which the republic of old were gradually led to ruin and carry of 20,000 inhabitants, no supervisor carry of 20,000 inhabitants, no ted States Supervisors can even witness the those which have been taken by the United States under the blind leadership of partitempted in the last extra session of Con-gress, could have had no possible effect on the election in Mississippi. And yet the AMENDMENTS "FIXED" TO DISFRANCHISE "shot-gun plan" of Mississippi has been denounced on every stump, by every Repub-lican orator from Maine to California, as if ment we discover that when it speaks of those to be commercial as a basis of representation it was the sentation it was the sentation of the s ments are made not to prevent the repeal of make them stronger if possible. These denunciations of Southern outrages, as they are called, are intended to fire the Northern croachments on the rights of the States, against a Republican in the South can be

ING FEDERAL SUPERVISION THERE. We did not in the extra session ask the repeal of the entire election laws. In order the Constitution and the reconstruction to refute the false and slanderous charge laws it was believed that the Democracy of that we were preparing to cover up fraud in Southern elections, Southern members of Congress agreed to leave the United States supervisors at the polls to witness both the The Democracy of the North, composed fairness of the elections and the fair countlargely of foreign-born citizens in the great ing of the votes. But when we asked that cities of the North, must be suppressed also. the power of election officers should be the The Irishman was good enough to dig canals same everywhere, the same rule for the city and build railroads, the German good that there is for the country, the same rule enough to till the soil and develop the for the Democrats that there is for Repubresources of the country, and every foreigner was good enough for substitutes to meet the rebel bullets and form a breast-work behind which the stalwart Republican could append to the the stalwart Republican could append to the the stalwart Republican could be appended to the the stalwart Republican could be supported to the behavior of the behavior that the supervisors have been shorn of their strength, and Mr. Conkling facetiously calls them "stool-pig-cons with their wings clipped." They made the law for Republican districts in the supervisors have been shorn of their strength, and Mr. speculate and grow rich, but they must not vote the Democratic ticket. To prevent this laws were enacted creating supervisors and dansity manufactured for the scale of the state of the supervisors and dansity manufactured for the state of the state of the supervisors with the state of the s and deputy marshals of elections and giving cept to witness the election are without them authority in cities of 20,000 inhabi- power, if they are stool-pigeons with their impunity not only emboldens repetition but tants to determine who should vote and power to call out the army and navy of the such themselves. But as I said on a former power to call out the army and navy of the United States to support their arbitrary United States to support their arbitrary occasion, "while they were creating stool- to gratify his passions could seize a free- stitution refused the name of "National business hours, and had been a good occasion, "while they were creating stool- to gratify his passions could seize a free- stitution refused the name of "National business hours, and had been a good occasion, "while they were creating stool- to gratify his passions could seize a free- stitution refused the name of "National business hours, and the such themselves. But as I said on a former to gratify his passions could seize a free- stitution refused the name of "National business hours, and the such themselves." The exodus still continues and all themselves. The exodus still continues and all themselves are the such themselves. The exodus still continues and all themselves are the such themselves. The exodus still continues and the such themselves are the such themselves. The exodus still continues and the such themselves are the such themselves. The exodus still continues and the such themselves are the such themselves are the such themselves. The exodus still continues and the such that I am Harold White, and though greatly diminished the arrivals are the such that I am Harold White, and the such that I am H construction of the law. These laws the pigeons with clipped wings to nestle gently construction of the law. These laws the Democrats endeavored to repeal and were at Republican polls, they created vultures at Republican polls, they creat only prevented by the veto of the President. with fierce beaks and sharpened talons to I make no war on the veto power. It is one of the checks and balances of the Constituof the checks and balances of the Constitu-tion, no part of which can be destroyed without endangering the destruction of our liberty. It is one of the bulwarks of the desire to give any color even to the charge States Rights party, but like all just power that we were seeking to conceal fraud anyit may be abused. And it is remarkable that when Mr. Calhoun made his unanthat when Mr swearable argument in favor of the veto the subject, refused even to reduce the pay power he pointed out one single instance in of the supervisors, lest it should be claimed which it might be abused and foretold that we sanctioned the constitutionality of which it might be abused and loretoid exactly what Mr. Hayes did under the pressure of the stalwart leaders. Mr. Calhoun said the veto power would be abused whenever a President should use it to prevent the passage "of an act intended to prevent the passage to with the old name of "the United States and with the old name of "the United States" It is good enough for us as our fathers made it and we want no newfath the old name of "the United States" It is good enough for us as our fathers made it and we want no newfath the object the de and the election; to already the state leaves and your early the considerable pair. And the quality with considerable pair. And the pair with the constant pair with considerable pair. And the pair with the constant pair with the constant pair with the constant pair. And the pair with considerable pair. And

The sad world waiteth in its misery.

The blind world stambleth on its round of pain;

Else, Maya's child! wake! slumber not again!

We are the voices of the wandering wind:

We are the voices of the wandering wind:

The blind world stambleth in its misery.

The blind world stambleth in the learness at the lostering care of the world. This is the doctrine openly asserted in the Saratoga doctrine openly asserted in the lostering care of the world world stambleth in the lostering care of the world world stambleth in the lostering care of the world world world stambleth in the lostering care of the world world stamble $275,296.60. Of this only $14,774.66 were spent in the South and $230,522 in the North. In 1878 $202,001.09 were expended for this purpose—only $24,639 in the South | naturalized and that he is a qualified voter. | the gravest of constitutional questions and and $177,652 in the North. In 1876 John Davenport had under his command in the single city of New York 1,070 supervisors and 2,500 deputy marshals.

In 1878 he had 1995 supervisors and supervisors are supervisors and supervisors and supervisors and supervisors and supervisors are supervisors and supervisors and supervisors are supervisors and supervisors and supervisors are supervisors and supervisors are supervisors and supervisors are supervisors and supervisors are super In 1878 he had 1,225 supervisors and warrant arrests and drags him from the polls judicial authority on such subjects in the 1,350 deputy marshals. These figures show and locks him up in an iron cage until the Union. We find that the only two sections

This is a complete destruction of the powr of the State to create voters. To permit United States officials to interfere at all at lections is practically to set aside the officers of the State. If the State officers are set aside, the State cannot secure to the onferred upon him. And if the State cannot secure to the voter the enjoyment of the ranchise she has conferred, then her power o fix the qualification of voters becomes a construction is not only repugnant to all by State voters, "and therefore it was held in the Reese case that Congress could give The right to regulate the manner of holding no protection to a voter in a State except to regulate the election itself is a matter of sub-stance. To regulate the mode of exercising count of race, color or previous condition of servitude. the franchise is one thing; to decide who shall be registered and to arrest citizens to prevent them from voting is another and a totally different thing.
In the great case of McCollough vs. Mary-of the United States Bank; that the United | until every Democrat charged with a crime tried by national laws in national courts. shows how effectually this can be done. Thousands of voters were intimidated from | STATE RIGHTS AND THE UNITED STATES. the polls, hundreds were arrested and imprisoned until the election was over, and ne citizen was arrested without warrant simply because he advised another at the he had a right to vote. What John Daven- Empire State of New York. port can do to one he may do to another. ecessary to the success of his party. His boldness is equal to his cunning, and the rard districts and the other for causes 20,000 inhabitants. These in the United 20,000 inhabitants. These in the United States where the power given to election officers are conducted in some department of 20,000 inhabitants and every circuity several the power given to election officers in class of 20,000 inhabitants and every circuity several the power given to election officers in class of 20,000 inhabitants and every circuity several the power given to election officers in class of 20,000 inhabitants and every circuity several the power given to election officers in the State of the power given to election officers in the State of the power given to election officers in the State of the power given to election officers in the State of the power given to election officers in the State of the power given to election of the power given to election officers in the State of the power given to election of the power act as originally passed, and they have been held to be unconstitutional. The Court in describing the fourth section, says: "It has for its object the punishment of all per-and after an exhaustive analysis by the Chief-Justice this is held to be beyond the voter the enjoyment of the franchise she has power of the United States Government and therefore unconstitutional. That Congress cannot confer the right to nullity and a farce. And the fourth section of the first article of the Constitution, inten-Court in the case of Minor vs. Happersett, subsequently quoted and affirmed in the Reese case, is as follows: "The United ded to give to Congress merely the power to make or alter regulations as to the manner of exercising the election franchise, is held to nullify and destroy the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States of States of States of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second section of States has no voters in the States of its own or the second sec the same article which creates and regulates creation. The elective officers of the United the great right of suffrage itself. Such a States are all elected directly or indirectly in the Reese case that Congress could give sons who by force, bribe, &c., hinder, delay,

&c., any person from qualifying and voting.

THE PEACE OF A STATE. The Supreme Court has further held that life, limb and property vests in the State, land, Chief Justice Marshall decided that and in the Cruikshank case says: "It is no the State of Maryland could not tax a branch | more the duty or within the power of the States had power to create the bank, and falsely imprison or murder within a State, this implied the power to preserve it; that than it would be to punish for false impristhe power to tax the bank involved the onment or murder itself." Mr. Robeson, power to destroy it by taxation, and that with great ingenuity, sought to avoid the the power to destroy would defeat or ren- force of these decisions by admitting that der useless the power to create. The State | the United States had no voters of their own has the admitted right to create voters, and creation in the States, but insisting that this equally implies the right to protect when the State had created the voters, the them. The power in an United States offi- United States made them their voters by cer to arrest and drag a voter from the polls authorizing them to vote for members of avolves the power to destroy the elective Congress, and must protect them in this How grateful we feel for the bright gifts and franchise, and the power to destroy the right-as if the State begat the voting elective franchise would defeat or render children and the United States adopted iseless the power to create voters. Therethem. But unfortunately for his argument fore the appointment of United States su- the Supreme Court not only decides that pervisors, even as witnesses at the polls is "the United States has no voters in the inconstitutional and void. None have a States of its own creation," but in the very right to be there in authority save the next sentence it just as distinctly decides officers of the State. But if we should ad- that "the elective officers of the United mit for argument that Congress had the States are all elected directly or indirectly power to create officers to supervise the by State voters." It then proceeds to show They stretched the jurisdiction of United manner of holding an election, this would that Congressmen are elected directly and and Rhode Island the foreigner and lose nothing in representation, but every State which excludes a negro must suffer a reduction of representation. Senator Anthony but every State duction of representation. Senator Anthony boasted that he fixed the amendments so that Rhode Island might exclude the foreigner. This is but another exhibition er to prevent fraudulent registration or Waite, the friend of Lincoln and appointee voting is the power to say who shall vote, of Grant. This would seem to settle the right to create voters. And the manner in | they adopted the most extreme of State right | which this law has been executed by Republican officials in the city of New York of State sovereignty in Louisiana, created by fraud and sustained by bayonets.

cession and through election supervisors bid

tempt the opinions of the courts, but they encourages further aggression. Ambition | treat with disrespect the opinions of the fraelection laws to seize and prevent from vital enactment when defining treason voting a sufficient number of voters to against the United States it does not speak

This repeal would have affected seventy-blook of rest and rever find the course as well as the character of our conflict they must be construed, it possession and appeal to the first of the same subject must be construed, it possession and appeal to the first of the same subject must be construed, it possession and appeal to the first of the same subject must be construed, it possession and appeal to the course as well as the character of our conflict they must be so construed, it possession and appeal to the course as well as the character of our conflict they must be so construed, it possession and appeal to the first of these parents of the same subject must be construed, it possession and appeal to the course as well as the character of our conflict they must be so construed, it possession and appeal to the course as well as the character of our conflict they must be construed, it possession and appeal to the course as well as the character of our conflict they must be construed, it possession and appeal to the course as well as the character of our conflict they must be construed, it possession and appeal to the course as well as the character of our conflict they must be construed, it possession and appeal to the course as well as the character of our character of our character of our character of the course as well as the character of our character of the south which would have affected seventy white life doubt are character of our character of our character of our character our character of our character of our character of our characte shamelessly and falsely denounced the efforts to repeal these laws as an effort of rebel brigadiers to license violence and free fraud in the South! constitutional power carries with it the implied power to enforce it. As Chief-Justice object was accomplished by taking military in the local plant of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done under the form and semblance of the Control of the elections, but it was done to the bad. Of all his former chums, the situation. Thave two of my fellows are the sole possessor of a bandy on the stairs. My property man be the sole possessor of a bandy on the stairs. My property man be the sole possessor of a bandy on the stairs. THE DAVENPORT LAW ONLY AIMED AT THE Serve." The power to create voters clearly stitution. But carpet-bag Governors are Union and sealed his faith with his blood, to-day in declaring my guilt." belongs to the State, and this carries with no more. This flimsy pretext for the inva- who fought for the preservation of the it the necessary power to enforce it, and by sion of the States can be no longer made, Union and not the destruction of the States, If there was anything sectional in the her own State laws and State officers secure and now the mask is thrown aside and the who was satisfied when the South laid down issue made in the extra session it was a to the voter who is pronounced by her to be Republican party boldly declares its pur-Northern and not a Southern issue. These laws were not passed for the South, for at the time they were enacted the South was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to be secure under carpet-bag domination for the Rooth was supposed to the voter who is pronounced by her to be qualified the enjoyment of the electoral pose to take military control of the ballot-box. The palladium of our liberty, the box. The palladium of our liberty, the box. The palladium of our liberty, the box. Harold White?" grasped by soldiers from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, that will echo and re-echo as it comes boom now he awoke from his fit of passionate is crowded by admirers of the leading and approaching her, "my wife. She ination for the Republican party. They regulations as to the manner of holding election for the wolf. This is the ing across the Ohio, until it awakens a

E WEEKLY CLARION.

BY GEORGE T. QUIGLEY.

Yes, sadly and sweetly its beauties are flying; As to the touch of the reaper it instantly vields. The season is leaving, and the gay birds are ny home; The song of the robin at morn and at even,

To greet us with rapture no longer shall The gay-colored song-birds have fled from the and therefore unconstitutional.

It is further distinctly held that Congress can protect no right that it cannot confer. Having felt the chill breath of the stern king, Whose merciless blight casts a gloom over

> With her magical wand she waftsher adieu; Her bright cloak of verdure she gathers around

From hillside and valley, while brooklet and an election is a matter of form; the right to protect him against discrimination on ac- Are robbed of the charm with which Summer surrounded Their clear, leaping fountains, which keep touched him, and he was still. murmuring still

> The Summer is going, its rich gifts bestowing On all who have feasted and bowed at her flowing O'er which fragrant branches did sweetly entwine; No more from you woodland in gay, joyous Shall nature peal forth at the breaking of

The birds from their bowers, the bees from the Those joys that were ours for the season are gone. Adieu, balmy Summer! thou season of pleas-

As your faint, dying echoes vibrate on our Thou hast scattered abroad on thy sunny ca-And as you retreat from our valleys and moun-

As you gather your robes which we sling to Let us sip one more draught from your lifegiving fountains, Which charm and delight us each succeeding year.

Perfect Love Is Simple Faith.

The three magistraties had sat unin-terruptedly far into the autumn after-were inseparable. Depend upon it, the noon, and had now retired to consider West Indian was at the bottom of it. brook had merged her identity in that Love me, love, but breathe it low! their decision. It was a distressing case In this fashion the gossips of Single- of the now talented actress, Miss Harewhich was broken down by the THE SOUTH DOES NOT OBJECT TO EXIST- and when the United States officer is the constitutional question, and it does so far and occurring in Singlebridge, which is bridge discussed the events which had bell. Fanny had played many parts and when the United States officer is the constitutional question, and it does so far sole judge as to whether fraud has been as the courts can settle it. But the Republic as the courts can settle it. But the Republic as the courts can settle it. But the Republic as the courts can settle it. But the Republic as the courts can settle it. But the Republic as the courts can settle it. But the Republic as the courts can settle it. committed or not, it involves the power, as lican party care nothing for courts, con- tense interest among the inhabitants. departure. Constitution which gives to the State the Constitution or laws when in conflict with Everybody knew the parties concerned. Silas Westbrook, the reluctant prosecution which gives to the State the Constitution or laws when in conflict with Everybody knew the parties concerned. Silas Westbrook, the reluctant prosecution which gives to the State the Constitution or laws when in conflict with Everybody knew the parties concerned. Silas Westbrook, the reluctant prosecution of the Constitution or laws when in conflict with Everybody knew the parties concerned. Silas Westbrook, the reluctant prosecution of the Constitution or laws when in conflict with Everybody knew the parties concerned. Silas Westbrook, the reluctant prosecution of the Constitution or laws when in conflict with Everybody knew the parties concerned. Silas Westbrook, the reluctant prosecution of the Constitution or laws when in conflict with Everybody knew the parties concerned. Silas Westbrook, the reluctant prosecution of the Constitution of the Constitutio tor, was senior partner in an impressive. White; unless, the female gossips Such was the electric force of her act about six months ago to aid destitute ly solid firm which had flourished in the borough for generations. He enjoyed a Westbrook, which considering his de-And now, to maintain their power, they

And now, to maintain their power, they

And now, to maintain their power, they

And now, to maintain their power, they

The positive dome. For once, however, they were laden with bouquets, retired to her laden with laden wit denounce State rights as the mother of se- a witness for the prosecution, was held written her a letter, in which these dressing-room, and in a few minutes had Besides this the Commissary Committee in much esteem by certain of the youn- words occurred : ger sort in Singlebridge, who sumpathiz-Empire State of New York.

The Supreme Court has declared a part of ed with his amiable wildness; and if would be happier to be rid of me for In the space of a few minutes Miss the refugees, estimated to have been applied by the refugees, estimated to have been The Supreme Court has declared a part of the refugees, estimated to have been these laws at least unconstitutional, and yet certain of the older sort looked askance good and all, our bond should be distributed. When the refugees, estimated to have been these laws at least unconstitutional, and yet certain of the older sort looked askance good and all, our bond should be distributed. When the refugees, estimated to have been these laws at least unconstitutional, and yet certain of the older sort looked askance good and all, our bond should be distributed. If he can arrest one on such frivolous pre-texts, he can arrest fifty thousand if he chooses, and he will if his masters and adchooses, and he will if his masters and adwisers will sustain him whenever it becomes and says: We declare our uncompromising for the prosecution, little was known to keeps me steadfast in my determination the convoy of Mr. Beauchamp, to her sick and superanuated and even blind, opposition to any repeal of these just protective laws." They not only treat with contive laws." They not only treat with content the courts but the courts but they provided the miserable wrong from which resident with the Westbrooks for about I suffer. They shall right me yet.

Before ascending to the eight months, during which period he "I have borrowed for the present which led to her rooms, she informed port having sent 6,307 men, women and encourages further aggression. Ambition treat with disrespect the opinions of the irais more fierce than lust, and when a tyrant that probably a genchildren to Kansas and other States. stitution refused the name of "National business hours, and had been a good marriage; but the people with whom I tleman would call upon her. If he did politicians would not hesitate under these of in the singular number. In the most people observed, but despite all his efforts—and some of these were marked enough—suave Mr. Blanchard failed to bestow. It is better that we should Mr. Beauchamp, whose face similarly captivate Gus's pretty sister seem to have parted forever. In the with complacent delight, nodded his arrivals having come from Alabama and on the vote of a single city. They did it in New Orleans in 1876 through their sewing- them or adhering to their enemies." But ter, she treated the West Indian connectify the well-informed Singlemachine circulars, and they will do it in the Republican party is ashamed of the old tion of her father's firm with unerring bridge to hear Fanny Westbrook's cheername of our Union, and in every platform graciousness. But her sweetest moods, ful words, to note her placid brow and they declare that this Government is no her tenderest looks and gentlest tones bright manner. She never could have in the tiniest ripple of laughter)—your larger proportions than ever next spring. The Democracy reverences the fact that the were not for him. The magician at thought much of that Harold White, devices, mind. Let us now turn to the other fundamental General Government was formed of States whose bidding they so gladly came was you know, or she would have manifestby the Constitution. All powers not granted to the they are so anxious to call our Government dissoluble union," and the success of the on the other to malice and all unchari-THE COUNTRY.

To understand the exact issue made up between the parties in the extra session of Congress it is necessary to consider the full force and effect of the United States election laws as they now stand and how much of the method between the Democrats sought to recently and not recognize it to be a not of the Democrats sought to recently and not recognize it to be a dissoluble union," and the success of the "indestructible States or the people. No right can be acconstitution or laws of the United States election laws as they now stand and how much of the Democrats sought to recently the distinct and the success of the "indestructible states or the people. No right can be acconstitution or laws of the "Saxon-eyed girl, a love which sprang constitutional Union. Here we have the distinct assertion of the power in the United States to protect voters and keep the boldly asserted in the halls of Congress that of the Democrats sought to recently son.

The abelian laws as they now stand and how much of the Democratis sought to recently the protection of the States or the people. No right can be acconstitution or laws of the "indestructible States or the people. We turn therefore between the full they are so anxious to call our Government dissoluble union," and the success of the "indestructible States or the people. We turn therefore between the full they are so anxious to call our Government dissoluble union," and the success of the "indestructible States or the people. Saxon-eyed girl, a love which sprang constitutional Union. Here we have the distinct assertion of the power in the United States or the people. Saxon-eyed girl, a love which sprang constitutional Union. Here we have the distinct assertion of the power in the United States or protect voters and keep the White. He would put an end to this protect its own citizens and regulate its own of the protect with the protect of the union," and the success of the "indestructible States to produce the Constitution of the States or the people. No right const of them the Democrats sought to repeal. The election laws contain two entirely separate and distinct systems—one made for the rural districts and the other for cities of 20,000 inhabitants. These laws were continued and brought forth in the Union laws (City and the laws) of these laws we see the contain two entirely separate and distinct systems—one made for the passage of these election laws contain two entirely separate and structured and should be used for this purpose. It is true that there elections the calm, clear and authoritative declarations of the Constitution: "This blandly proffered request; the army and navy could and should be used for this purpose. It is true that there is the calm, clear and authoritative declarations of the Constitution: "Therefore, unless there is some expressed used for this purpose. It is true that there is the declarations of the Constitution: "This blandly proffered request; the army and navy could and should be used for this purpose. It is true that there is the declarations of the Constitution: "The powers not delegated to the United States."

Therefore, unless there is some expressed to the United testimony of the Westbrooks, can with a many could and should be used for this purpose. It is true that there is the army and navy could and should be used for this purpose. It is true that there is the clear and authoritative declarations of the Constitution: "This is the Government of the united testimony of the war full of scornful elections." Therefore, unless there is some expressed to the United United States."

Therefore, unless there is some expressed to the United Unite sun was setting redly behind a familiar he seemed to have entirely relinquished rockon for something, to say nothing of belt of woods which fringed the further all intention of returning to Jamaica. Mrs. Harold Whitenow he awake from his fit of passionate is crowded by admirers of the leading and approaching her, "my wife. She bitterness to find himself on a spot that lady, whose benefit night it is. had often been hallowed by the presence think of him?

"Harry !"

"Fanny !" In those two words all was expressed. In that fierce embrace doubt was slain.

"I am changed. They have not sent missed on the spot. Union. We find that the only two sections of these election laws which have been while behind the swift scythe the ripe grain is on me. Why don't you shrink from Could not do it. It's against orders, perused them line by line, and the magthe moral leper, as the rest of them have sir." done ?

"Because"-and it seemed to him as though her voice had never thrilled To leave the late haunts of their bright, sun- with such sweetness before—"I know are an old friend, I suppose it would be after a pause; and taking for granted

> "And you believe-" "That all will be righted yet. I can

"Miss Westbrook-Come, Fanny, dresser. this is no place for you." Harold and she had not heard the footsteps. It was Blanchard and her brother who had approached unnoticed.

White to Blanchard. "Faugh," replied that worthy, "I sir. I am here to perfom a duty." "Scoundrel!" Harold began, at the change." The last four words were murmured. ward and kissed him before her brother, ran thus: whose surprise at her defiant attitude was unspeakable.

The charge against Harold White of am desperate." mbezzlement, and the result of it, produced a wonder that lasted much longer | door. You did it for the best to get rid than the proverbial nine days. His of him. It is always convenient to dedeparture, the day after the hearing, cline receiving a visitor at one's hotel; increasing the number and sympathy of and then find Mr. Beauchamp. I would Sweet and still as roses blow his friends. It was generally admitted spead with him before I go on." that his defence had been weak-incom-He might have had his own invincible nent.

reasons for not making it stronger. She saw the manager, and exchanged Why had the brother of his affianced, with a few whispered words. He More than all the world may know; Love me, love, but breathe it lo reputation for strict probity and broad parture, he was hardly likely to have Perhaps.

"An interview with me?" replied was full of scornful eloquence. She o-day in declaring my guilt." knowledge of the young scapegrace's is on the other side of those folding the lad left him. The September whereabouts. As for the West Indian, doors. My friend here and myself of the girl he loved. What did she is at this moment in a state of mind me, and when poor miserable Gus conthe life of him leave his post, and he the conspiracy, we got married." ceeded in reaching the stage under the exclaimed Blanchard; "where are your cover of an audacious super. If that proofs?" "O Harold, I have followed you for should come to the knowledge of Mr. "Here!" replied Harold, pointing to hours, fearing to speak, you looked so Somerset Beauchamp, the manager, he the papers; "and here they remain pale and changed!" (Fussyton) will to a certainty be dis-(Fussyton) will to a certainty be dis- untilter is Mr. Blanchard.

all right." Induced to commit a breach of disci- he stepped towards the door, which was pline by the bestowal of a rather potent under the janitorship of Mr. Beauchamp.

wait, dear—if you will let me. You were never more precious to me than you are at this moment."

bill of the call-boy disappears behind a pile of scenery, and is presently heard in altercation with Miss Harebell's "You may go, on one condition, sir he second scene. "I know that, Mrs. Cummins. I want Pardon me-if you decline, take the "And no place for you either," said to speak to you. Open the door."

pered conversation between the lead-neat and commodious apartment within have no words to waste on such as you, ing lady's dresser and the call-boy was the precincts of Easthampton jail." immediately succeeded by the re-appearance of that precocious youth, who did he utter, but taking his hat, and same time raising his hand. She said, "Miss Harebell will meet you af looking straight before him, he left the ter the performance, at her hotel, the hotel and proceeded-not unattended-"Sir, she said, "I am mistress of my George. She has private appartments in the direction of the Jamaica boat. own actions. If I chose to accompany there. All you have to do is to send in It was a pleasant hour or so which my brother, it is because I choose! your name. And now, sir, do clear out, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White and their The Supreme Court has further field that the Supreme Court has further field the Supreme Court has further field that t

there be a shine neither." meeting that took Meantime his note had produced a in Singlebridge.

They parted and went their several brook. At the peril of those nearest new leaf at the other end of the world. and dearest to you see me to-night. I

"Cummings," gasped she, "lock that no one knew whither, had the effect of but I will see him. Finish my hair if you love me, tell me so.

Blanchard had again curiously underorchensibly weak. But who knew? valued the strength of his lovely oppo-

(for she was his affianced in all but an grasped her hand warmly by way of open and formal declaration of the fact) emphsizing his chivalric intentions in Words for others, storm and snow, Let the shallow waters flow, ticular night she excelled herself. The resumed, with the aid of attentive Mrs. issued over 70,000 rations and distribu-"If I thought, darling, that you Cummings, the attire of ordinary life, ted over 20,000 pieces of clothing among

Before ascending to the staircase and requiring constant help.

served Fanny to him : "Now, Mr. Beauchamp, I shall leave

"Very well, my dear, they shall be ready if wanted."

"Mr. Blanchard, 'm," announced the maid-servant, and thereupon ushered for rich English people. Miss Westbrook rose and acknowledged No temperance Ajax can afford to his elaborate bow with a silence that defy New Jersey lightning.

"Miss Westbrook, can you divine

TERMS OF ADVERTISING SPACE. | IW. 2W. | SW. | SM. | OM. | O M. | 1 T Five in. | 5 00/7 50/12 00/15 00/30 00/30 00/75 00 28 Special, or local notices, 20 cents per line always believed in my perfect innocence Old Fussyton, the stage-doorkeeper, of the charge you helped to fasten on bordering on despair. He dare not for fessed the part which he had played in has just learned that a stranger has suc- "Confessed -conspiracy!" sneeringly istrates of Singlebridge have made my The speaker is a call-boy. His temp- innocence as public as a year since they proclaimed my guilt. the consent of his temporary custodians, -pardon me-and it is this: That you "What do you want? Miss Harebell leave for Jamaica by a certain steamer is not 'a beginner.' She is not on until which leaves this port to-morrow. I have to-night bespoken your berth.

"Until what?"

consequences, one of which will be the Blanchard heard no more. A whist emporary occupation by yourself of a my faith will not falter, my love never If Mr. Boshang was to stag you, wouldn't night. It was a more than pleasant meeting that took place a few days after As she shaped them she reached for startling effect upon Miss Harebell. It happiness was unspeakable. There was a streak of sorrow in it, though, when "At last I find you. In Miss Hare- he thought of his absent son, and bell, I have recognized Fanny West-prayed that the lad had turned over a

BY JOAQUIN MILLER.

Love me, love, but breathe it low, Love me, love, but breathe it low !

Words are cheap as water; If you love the, looks and sighs Tell my mother's daughter

Tell me only with your eyes!

Foaming on together;

nrer's report shows that the receipts fined to Mississippi and Louisiana, but Mr. Beauchamp, whose face beamed is spreading, a majority of the recent approval of this arrangement. Ob Tennessee. Their condition is much for the journey. Information has been you to your devices (here she indulged received that the exodus would assume Advices from Tennessee and Northern Alabama say relief boards are being organized there, which will co-operate with the board here and render what assistance they can.

> ---GENERAL AND PERSONAL.

ALL men are free and equal when they are dead. Norway has become a great resort

"Down with whisky" is the rallying cry of the Prohibitionists. THE Emperor of China announces the